ADDITIONAL ADMISSION OPTIONS

- Auditors may take one or more courses per semester and have no interest in earning seminary credit or a degree. An auditor may participate in all class functions, but is not accountable for tests or assignments, nor will they receive a grade or credit.
- Limited students are not enrolled in a degree program. Limited students may take up to five classes with the same privileges and responsibilities as degree program students and may transfer these into a future program at Winebrenner.
- Visiting students: If you are currently a student in good standing at another seminary, you are welcome to take classes at Winebrenner in order to transfer the credit to your current seminary.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

- Complete all sections of the application.
- A non-refundable fee of $30 must accompany the application. Payment can be made by personal check or credit card (by calling 1-800-992-4987).
- Request each institution listed in Section 4 to send a final official transcript of all postsecondary work directly to the Winebrenner Admissions Office. Masters level applicants need not submit high school transcripts. Transcripts are not required for auditors or visiting students.
- Visiting Students must clearly indicate in Section 4 the name and address of the school where your transcript from Winebrenner should be sent. Additionally, please include a letter from your academic dean indicating that you are currently a student in good standing at your seminary, and that coursework from Winebrenner will be applied to your studies there.
- Once submitted, the application and all supporting documents become the property of Winebrenner Theological Seminary and may not be returned to you, nor may they be used for any other purpose.
- You will be notified by mail regarding admission immediately after a decision has been made.

Additional Requirements for Master of Arts in Clinical Counseling Students

In addition to a completed application (as described above), MACC students must complete the following:

- Applicant must submit an Affidavit of Good Moral Character Form.
- Applicant must submit three Recommendation Forms.
- Applicant must participate in an interview with program director which includes an extemporaneous writing sample (this interview will be scheduled following the submission of all other documents).
- Applicant must provide a current curriculum vitae (via email to admissions@winebrenner.edu).

Additional Requirements for Doctor of Ministry Students

In addition to a completed application (as described above), Doctor of Ministry students must complete the following:

- Applicant must submit a Ministry Study Endorsement Letter from his or her church board or appropriate supervising body acknowledging their support and encouragement of the applicant's doctoral study program.
